Pink Shirt Day

Staff and students were encouraged to wear pink on Wednesday, February 28 and to “Strut their stuff to say enough” to bullying.

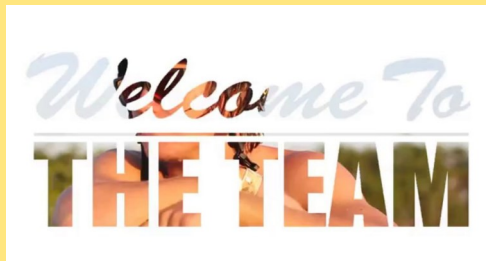

Hi! My name is Erika Cissell and I am thrilled to be joining the team here at Crestomere School as the new school social worker! I have a huge heart for this school and this community, I attended Crestomere from Kindergarten right through grade nine and I loved every second of it. After I finished High School I went on to get a Social Work Diploma from MacEwan University and then a Social Work Degree from the University of Calgary. Prior to coming to Crestomere I was briefly covering the School Social Work Position at Ponoka Secondary Campus.

When I am not at the school I love to be at home with my cat Alice, quilting, watching Disney movies, or planning a wedding, (just over 4 months to go!!). I love working with kids and I am excited to support students to be great learners, friends, and people! If you have any questions about my role in the school feel free to call and we can chat about it and how I fit into the family here at Crestomere!

Boys Basketball

The Crestomere Boys A Basketball team has had a season with lots of heart and team spirit. We had a bit of a late start to the season, but with time we proved we could be a threat if we pushed through.

The boys decided early in the season their number one goal was to win just one game. We successfully did that and then improved steadily there after striving our hardest to win every game and not give in no matter what. The boys gave their all every game they played. They realized early that no matter the “size” of the other team, it was how well they worked together that kept the other team at bay. The more that they practiced and the more they pushed their cardio the easier the next game became to play. Although they only won the one game, they managed to get a quarter of the other teams points every game, and always managed to score a few more points than they did at the previous game.

In the final game of the season the boys played Lacombe Christian School. This team was one of the stronger teams in the league and we lost that game by only 12 points. They were setting up screens, talking to each other and following their passes. They learned to read the other team weaknesses and managed to be a threat the entire game.

Coming this far the boys have learned how to play together as a team...if one man is struggling they learned they all struggle. It takes a team to be a team. One does laps they ALL did laps...all 65 of them right boys??

We also need to thank Mr. Singh for the help at the school organizing jerseys, make up games and filling in until I made it to the school for practices. Mr. Lewis for setting up the Referees for games and score keepers. Mr. Heppell, Mr. Lewis and Mr. Singh for coming to help run and shoot hoops with us at practices. You are a great support for our students and for that we thank you! Last but not least to the parents, siblings, grandparents and other family members for your on going support and being our cheering squad for home and away games.

It has been a pleasure to work with the boys this season and I leave them with the following quotes.

Winning is overrated. The only time it is really important is in surgery and war. ~Al McGuire

We didn't lose the game; we just ran out of time. ~Vince Lombardi

Girls Basketball

Wow! Have these girls come a long ways in their skill development! I'm so very proud of these ladies as they played hard and gave 120% each and every time. They started the season playing a very talented team but they came back to practice determined to do better. They worked so very hard! Each and every game you could see the improvement! I'm very proud of these players as they showed determination, endurance, being a team player and they made it a pleasure to help coach them.

Thank you Alyssa Barker for giving so much of your time and sharing your knowledge with us. You are an awesome coach!

Until next year ladies... you will be amazing!

How Will You Benefit? By providing an item for our fundraising auction you will be supporting the construction of an important recreational component of our rural community.

- We will acknowledge your donation both verbally and visually at our auction event.
- After the event we will again acknowledge your support through both traditional media and a variety of social media venues.
- You will receive a thank for your support to display in your place of business.
